Report: Workshop on Personality Development Through Indian Knowledge System

On February 2, 2026, a physical workshop titled "Personality Development Through Indian Knowledge System" was successfully organized and conducted at Department of Business Administration, Central University of Jharkhand. Co-ordinated by Prof. Bhagwan Singh, the event saw active participation from 60 attendees from MBA who were eager to explore traditional Indian frameworks for personal and professional growth.

The session was led by the distinguished expert, Prof. (Dr.) OSKS Sastri from the Central University of Himachal Pradesh, Dharmshala. Prof. Sastri delivered insightful perspectives on how the principles of the Indian Knowledge System (IKS) can be practically integrated into modern personality development.

Because the workshop was held in a physical mode, it fostered a highly engaging environment. Participants were able to interact directly with Prof. Sastri, asking questions and participating in meaningful discussions about applying ancient wisdom to contemporary life challenges. The event provided attendees with actionable insights and a grounded understanding of holistic self-improvement rooted in Indian traditions.
