

Seminar Title: Smart Money move in Your 20s – How One Decision Today Shapes Your Tomorrow”

Date- 27 November 2025

Target Audience- M.B.A. students

Total Participants: 66

Co-ordinator: Prof. Bhagwan singh

Experts: Mr. Vinay Chapparia, Founder & Director, Money Kumbh

Mr. Imtiyaz Ahmed, Senior Manager, DSP Mutual Fund

Report: Seminar on "Smart Money Move in Your 20s"

On November 27, 2025, Dept. of Business Administration successfully hosted a seminar titled "Smart Money Move in Your 20s – How One Decision Today Shapes Your Tomorrow," tailored specifically for MBA students.

The session featured two distinguished industry experts: Vinay Chapparia, Founder and Director of Money Kumbh, and Imtiyaz Ahmed, Senior Manager at DSP Mutual Fund. The seminar focused on the critical importance of early financial planning, wealth creation, and strategic investment for young professionals preparing to enter the corporate workforce.

Mr. Chapparia shared practical frameworks for building foundational financial literacy and making sound financial decisions early in a career. Mr. Ahmed complemented this by providing actionable insights into leveraging mutual funds, understanding the power of compounding, and executing effective portfolio diversification strategies. The collaborative session effectively bridged the gap between theoretical financial concepts and real-world wealth management, equipping the MBA cohort with the analytical tools needed to make informed, proactive decisions for their long-term financial stability and growth.

